

VICTORINOX

SWISS MODERN SANTOKU DAMAST A KNIFE OF STRIKING CAPABILITY

Some blades just have it all: no compromises, no corner-cutting, just cool cutting-edge kudos. The corrosion-resistant blade is made from Damast steel in a lively pattern called «Thor,» offering superior strength and a unique cutting ability. The handle, made of European walnut wood, adds a unique touch to each knife due to its richly grained and dark-brown surface. This Swiss Modern Santoku is the first Damast limited edition within the household knives range and will be limited to 1884 pieces – the founding year of Victorinox.

- Limited to 1884 pieces worldwide
- Unique Damast steel blade combined with a high-quality walnut wood handle
- Sequential numbering on every piece
